

Undergraduate Half-Time Student (On or Off-Campus) 2023-24 Cost of Attendance

NOTE: The Office of Financial Aid establishes budgets, also termed Cost of Attendance (COA). The Cost of Attendance also provides students and their families with a budget for tuition and fees, housing, food, transportation, books, supplies, and personal expenses.

These budgets, which are used to determine eligibility for financial aid awards, include allowances for all costs, both direct and indirect. These budgets include allowances for tuition and fees, housing, food, transportation, books, supplies, and personal expenses.
